Callaway Cup Mule Derby Rules and Regulations

What is the Mule Derby?

Wheeled mules will compete for The Callaway Cup on the incline of Court Street between 4th and 5th Streets. One might think of this as a larger scale of the Cub Scouts' Pinewood Derby. Each mule will be attached to a cable stretched from the top to the bottom of the hill and move by gravity from the release point and stopped by a hay bale at the end.

Judging:

Entries will be judged on appearance and speed. Participants will compete in heats based on the number of entries. The Callaway Cup will be awarded to the entry whose time is the fastest in the winning heat. A separate award will be given for the Most Creative Mule.

Entry Rules:

- Each mule must have four wheels.
- Entry MUST look like a mule, with credit given for innovation and style.
- Mules must weigh no more than 50 pounds.
- Each mule MUST be 3 feet tall, including the wheels, in order to be attached to the cable.
- Each mule MUST have two connectors with a minimum 1" diameter eyelet attached at a height of 3 feet. These connectors will attach the entry to the cable to guide it on its course.

Entries must be brought to the race table at the corner of 5th and Court by 5:00 p.m., June 19th for measurement and weigh-in. The first heat will begin promptly at 6:00 p.m. Any entry not checked in will be disqualified.
